

UNIT 4

A world map is centered on the page, showing various regions shaded in different tones of gray. The regions are labeled as follows: North America, Mexico, Latin America, including regions of Mesoamerica and the Caribbean, Europe, Middle East, Central Asia, East Asia, South Asia, Southeast Asia, Oceania, West Africa, Central Africa, East Africa, and Southern Africa. A legend at the bottom center shows a hatched box labeled "Regional Overlaps".

Surrounding the map are several empty rectangular boxes for notes, connected to the map by thin lines. There are four boxes on the left side, four on the right side, and four at the bottom. The top row has three boxes: one on the left, one in the center, and one on the right. The second row has two boxes: one on the left and one on the right. The third row has two boxes: one on the left and one on the right. The bottom row has four boxes: one on the left, one in the center, one on the right, and one on the far right.
